

5 STAR APPROACH

Our 5 star approach are progressive, universal, holistic, comprehensive and conscientious .

- 1) The progressive understanding approach of the social health engineer providers are physically inspired to prepare the ground work for academic freedom that helps to aid and assist in social transformation conciliatory healing process of being progressively understood.
- 2) The universal tolerance approach of the social health engineer protectors are intellectually enlighten to build upon the work for intellectual independence that helps aid and assist in the social transition of the conciliatory healing process of being universally tolerant.
- 3) The holistic temperance/temperament approach of the social health engineer preservers are emotionally encouraged to further add to the work for financial stability that helps aid and assists in the social transcending of the conciliatory healing process of being holistically less temperamental.
- 4) The comprehensive confidence approach of the social health engineer prevalence are spiritually empowered to seal the deal of the work that be finished product of healing to aid assist in the social transferring of conciliatory healing process of being compressively confident in the operation in the multiplication of the work in producing social engenders.
- 5) The conscientious approach of the totality and the mindset of the social health engineers Common Humanity Mission encompasses the embodiment of social transparency of conciliatory healing process of being conscientiously respected and respectful academically, intellectually, emotionally and spiritually in the benevolent way.

Our 5 star approaches is to restore, readdress, revise replenish and reclaim the Common Mature Benevolent Community in our feelings, thoughts, attitude language, and actions.