

Conditions and situations: we are born into a condition placed into a situation which is designed to bring about a degree or level of awareness. The condition maybe in a state of repair which also means a new learning of regrouping re-acclimated and a acquaintances of relating adjusting to the state of the condition. What does the condition requires is it in a state of urgency a state of emergency?

Urgency that which requires immediate action earnest honest attention is needed something must be done quickly to repair the condition of a physical social psychological disorder that has become emotional disturbing. The disjunctively disjointedly condition has become jeopardizing as will to the environment of health relations one with another resulting into the spirit of apathy. Wherein the feelings become desensitized thoughts demoralized attitude dehumanized and communication devitalized and activity destabilized. The condition of the solmization process is the condition that needs to be repaired. It is under reconstruction it is imperatively urgent to come to this awareness and understanding if not many will continue to become patchily become conditioned and programed by the bombarding influence of sensationalism.

Emergency: is a crisis requiring action to help aid and assists to overcome the spirit of apathy which also evolved into social obscurity. Something unexpected not prepared ready equipped to feel engage encounter in the sudden impact of the event of the condition which places us in precarious acute situation. So the present condition of the given situation the socialization apathetic behavior among the social impaired. So there must be examination that places it's emphasis's on the socialization process and with the best intentions to eliminate eradicate the spirit of apathy and social obscurity then you will start to restorative process of the condition and situation some would call it situational awareness.

Primary responsibility: the focus and the drive as well as the inspiration commitment dedication Dir. Marin Luther King Jr. stated in the final analysis is first-class citizenship is to become a reality for the negro he must assume the primary responsibility for making it so, The Negro or anyone as far as that matters must not be victimized with the with delusion of thinking that others should be more concern than himself about his citizenship. We the same apply today as it pertains conditions and situations. Change your paradigm you change your condition when your condition for better your situation becomes asset to you rather a liability and business world it called a cost benefit analysis.
